TROTTING AT BRIGHTWOOD.

Two Match Races at the Park Yester day Afternoon.

The Brightwood Driving Park was the scene yesterday of two match trotting races -a road race and a speed trial. W. A. Brown's Virginia Boy beat R. C. Bedford's Nannie C. in a match race for $100, halfmile heats, best three in five. The winner took the last three heats; best time, 1.184 John O'Keefe's Hamilton proved too much for Hugh Kane's Abe in a match race for $100, half-mile heats, best two in three. But two heats were trotted, the best time being 1.17%. L. D. Sale's Gen. Beale, Henry Bow-ling's Pacemaker and Ernest Anderson's Mildred N. contested in a gentlemen's road race, mile heats, best two in three, for a purse of $50, Pacemaker taking the first heat in 2:45, and Gen. Beale the next two, in 2.48 and 2:394, respectively. Mr. John H. Gheen's Claymore, jr., started to beat 2:35, and twice did it, finishing in 2:334, and 2.2%. Mr. Gheen and Mr. Chas. E. Hart-ung were the judges, and Mr. John R. Kelly was the starting judge.

Ready to Play Games.

The Alpine, Jrs., have organized for the season and all clubs whose members are fourteen years of age are challenged. Their line-up and batting order are as follows: Smith, right fielder; Leimbach, left fielder Smith, right helder; Leimbach, left helder; T. Kerrigan, third base and pitcher; Mur-phy, shortstop and pitcher; Shanahan, sec-ond base; Eagan, catcher and pitcher; Niedfeldt, first base, and McMahon, second base and center field. Address all chal-lenges to John Shanahan, 40½ Jackson street northeast.

Carr Neel the Champion.

The western tennis championship reverted to Carr B. Neel yesterday at Chicago when he defeated Kriegh Collins in the championship round of the tournament at the Kenwood Country Club. In a closely contested match the champion of 1895 and 1896 regained h.5 lost title and came into permanent possession of the Snaulding trophy cup. Collins, who has held the cup two years, lost to Neel as challenger yes-terday in three straight sets, 6-4, 6-3 and 6-3. Neel played a net game. This will probably be the new champion's last tournament match, as his duties as mining engineer will hereafter require his presence in the mining district of Mexico.

The Senators pulled themselves together yesterday, as they should have done the day previous, and won both games from the Clevelands, the first by the score of 7 to 4 and the second 6 to 2.

From a scientific base ball view, both contests can be placed in the ordinary class, the first game being barren of anything that was sensational, while the second was brightened up only through the funny maneuvers of Twirler Schmidt. Schmidt has been in and out of the league ranks several times, being first brought to notice by Pal-mer O'Neill of Pittsburg in '91, and ever since he has been in harness, one day tw.ri-ing excellent ball and the next being batted to pieces. Yesterday Schmidt had all the best of the argument for seven innings, and then through the assistance of an error, h.s. wide curves were batted consecutively un-till six runs had crossed the plate. Although not the best twirler in the business, Schmidt made many friends yesterday through his earnestness and good-natured salites, so that many in the stands cheered him on and would have liked to have seen him 'land" his game. The Senators apparently viewed Schmidt's game as a farce the first three or four in-nings, but as time slipped by and a tally could not be scored the performance took on a melodramatic turn. All sorts of tactics were adopted, waiting the extreme limit for a base on balls, bunting, sacrific-ing and hitting out were all tried, but withcut avail. Seven innings crept along in this way, and the real "fans" became hot this way, and the real range way a possible under the collar, as they saw a possible defeat staring the Senators in the face, and yells of encouragement, "to get in the game" came from every quarter of the field. Finally, the long-delayed fireworks came off, and when the smoke had cleared away after the eighth turn at the bat it was seen that the Senators had chased six runners over the plate and had the contest "cinched."

Poor Schmidt took his defeat very much to heart, but in the remaining inning worked hard and retired the Senators without a run. The undeing of the German twirler had a lucky tinge to it, as had Lockhead "froze" on to Carsey's line drive there is more than a possibility that Schmidt's good twirling might have continued until the end and resulted in a shut-out. Schmidt's hu mor was the feature of the afternoon's en-tertainment, and as a consequence is en-titled to considerable prominence in the write-up.

In the first game Twirlers McFarland and Hughey were on the rubber for their respective clubs, and the first-named sent the Senators into the lead through his effective work, both at the bat and in the box. But eight hits were made by the Clevelands and no one player secured more than one hit. McFarland's triple in the third was the beginning of the visitors' downfall. Hughey's work was of the lazy-don't-care sort, and but for the fine fielding of the "Wanderers" many more bingles would have been credited to the Senators. Although Kittridge is charged with an error, a throw that pinked the runner in the ribs, his clever work behind the bat had considerable to do with the fine work of McFarland, the latter being shrewdly handled after he had made a bad start.

"Kid" Carsey made his first appearance of the season as a Senator in the second game, and his work was a vivid reminder of his early days in Washington when he was considered a star. Shrewd headwork marked the "Kid's" performance through-out the nine innings, and at the conclusion it was found that but six hits were made it was found that but six hits were made by the Clevelands. Carsey does not belong to the class of twirlers that hold their op-ponents down to a small number of hits, but his long suit is the preventing of a bunching of hits in one inning. He has won many games with a large number of hits credited against him, and for this reason is a valuable twirler with a club that can do any sort of hitting to help him out. Yes-terday's work would indicate that Carsey has many years of usefulness as a twirler has many years of usefulness as a twirler before him.

McGann's work yesterday was an improvement on his first appearance, his time-ly hitting being appreciated, while his work on first was of the best. Dick Padden and Bonner were in the game at all times, while Atherton made his usual sensational play. Gaffney and Latham umpfred another satisfactory game.

These Hour Sales make deep inroads into the surplus stock.

Eleven days before inventory and out of those eleven days there are but nine business days. The merciless reducing we have been doing has reduced the stock far beyond our expectations, but the surpluses are yet immense. Tomorrow's "Hour Sales" will accomplish much! We know we have never put before you such an array of extraordinary values! And we know if you come here you'll agree with us. Depend on finding just what is advertised, but by all means be here promptly on the beginning of the hour in which the articles you wish are advertised, because in many instances lots are very small.

The chief event of yesterday for the Harvard-Yale team was the contest between F. A. Blount (Yale) and C. Dupee (Yale) to decide the entry for the 100-yard run.

There was a close contest, which resulted in a victory for Blount by a few inches; time, F. Z. Fox (Harvard) did some smart practice, as did the milers and halm-milers. Few of the men will require any further hard work. All of them are in excellent form, and while none is boasting, it is evident that the men and their trainers are confident of success.

The demand for tickets for Saturday's contest is so great that the club is extend-ing the stands and making every possible use of the space. "The Belle of New York" and other American companies playing in London have suspended matinees for Satur-day, in order that the members may at-tend

Hughey Jennings says in explanation of his telegram blocking Manager Hanlon's efforts to trade him for Wagner:

"I am not opposed to figuring in a deal, but I most certainly object to going to Louisville. With the reports that are going around regarding new leagues and the reduction of the National League circuit, a player doesn't know where he is at. It isn't certain that Louisville will be in the league next year, and I want to stay in the big organization. I am looking out for my own interests, and for that reason object to ward & Lothrop's store by the overwhelm ing score of 15 to 0. And Tuesday defeated the government printing office "Invinci-bles" by 4 to 0, two shut-outs to their credit in a week. The feature of both games was the good work of the pension office battery and the fielding of Jacobs and Atz of the Pensions. interests, and for that reason object to going to Louisville, for if it were to be dropped next year I might be frozen out. I wouldn't object to going to some other club if satisfactory arrangements could be made."—Brooklyn Eagle. TRY ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE,
